Passport to Forever: Benefiting the International Adoption Center

On Saturday, November 2, 2019, friends and supporters of the International Adoption Center at Cincinnati Children's will celebrate 20 years of uniting families together from around the world at Passport to Forever.

This dinner, auction and heartwarming children's fashion show celebrates the hope of families that have been built from around the world, while raising vital funds for the center's work. More than 400 people attended last year and this event has raised $1.2 million since its inception.

International Adoption Center

The International Adoption Center (IAC) at Cincinnati Children's exists to meet the health and wellness needs of internationally adopted children, their families and their communities. The staff in the IAC addresses the complex medical, developmental and psychological challenges that many internationally adopted children face, while also providing support for their forever families.

Since 1999, the IAC has assisted more than 3,000 adoptive families from 48 states welcome children into their homes. We are internationally recognized as a resource for both pre- and post-adoption services and education for families. There are fewer than 10 centers in the United States that offer specialized care to internationally adopted children, and none are as comprehensive as our program at Cincinnati Children's.

The IAC Needs Your Help

As a nonprofit hospital and research center, Cincinnati Children's relies on the partnership of donors to help fund important services like those provided by the IAC.

The center's tremendous success is made possible by the generous support of donors and sponsors—large and small.

Internationally adopted children often have significant medical needs. Continued partnership is necessary to further the IAC's growth and expansion of services to include mental healthcare as well as educational and learning services.

The funding needed to support our mission and goals is made possible through philanthropic events, such as Passport to Forever, and you can help.

We're changing the outcome together.
